

Welcome to the Spring 2022 Outreach Publications Catalog!

Take a look at all the new brochures, flyers, bookmarks, publications, and printables available for distribution, courtesy of Westchester Library Systems outreach department. If you would like to request copies for distribution, click here and fill out this form. Delivered directly to your organization. Free of charge!

You can click on the image links to view the full files, hosted on our outreach websites. Items are presented alphabetically by publication title.

Item Cover	Item Description
 DOWNLOAD, STREAM, ENJOY! westchester LIBRARY SYSTEM Empowering libraries. Inspiring communities.	DOWNLOAD, STREAM, ENJOY! Our newest addition to our handouts promoting eresources. This three-panel brochure directs people to the three giants of streaming content- Libby, Hoopla, and Kanopy- as well as the unique collection offered by Comics Plus. The handy chart on the back tells readers of the formats and materials they'll be able to find on each platform. Find resources and learn more at: westchesterlibraries.org/listen-read
 Essential Online Health Information For Older Adults Give this information your loved ones. Know what to look for. See our recorded presentation (and more) at seniorlawday.info westchester LIBRARY SYSTEM Empowering libraries. Inspiring communities.	ESSENTIAL ONLINE HEALTH INFORMATION FOR OLDER ADULTS This jam-packed brochure was originally distributed as a handout for our Essential Online Health Information for Older Adults presentation, but the information stands on its own! Learn about smart research strategies and library databases like X-Plain and Consumer Lab which will help you find trustworthy information. Find resources and learn more at: seniorlawday.info/essential-online-health-information-for-older-adults
 GET YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA! Connect with the Westchester Library System to learn about the four paths to a high school equivalency diploma, find local classes, track down past scores, and connect with free study resources. If you are preparing for the GED exam (in English or Spanish), we can give you a free account to the online program GED Academy. Can you commit at least 2 hours each week? then move forward with a personalized learning program - and a Study Coach! EMAIL: HSE@WLSMAIL.ORG TELEPHONE: (914) 231-3264 westchester LIBRARY SYSTEM Empowering libraries. Inspiring communities.	GED ACADEMY HALF-SHEET A simple handout that provides readers with the contact information they can use to get in touch with our High School Equivalency program. Upon reaching out to our team, the patron will receive information about GED pathways, including study via our online program GED Academy from EssentialEd. Bilingual English/Spanish Find resources and learn more at: firstfind.org/adult-education

Spanish version available

GUIDE TO THE JOB SEARCH TOOLKIT (AKA ROADMAPS) Our collection of job search roadmaps are both an introduction and compliment to the Job Search Toolkit. Each roadmap lays out the steps you should anticipate throughout the job search process, from beginning to end. Each handout is geared towards a specific group that might be looking for a job:

- First Time Job Seekers
- Your Career at 50+
- Returning to the Workforce
- Reentry after Incarceration

Available in English or Spanish

Find resources and learn more at: firstfind.org/jobs-and-careers

Spanish version available

JOB SEARCH TOOLKIT The newest rendition of the Job Search Toolkit has been redesigned from the bottom up to present the information in a clearer, more visually appealing style.

Content still covers all of the steps one can expect before, during, and after landing a job. New content has been added to address the prevalence of video and phone interviews.

Available in English or Spanish.

Find resources and learn more at: firstfind.org/jobs-and-careers

LEARN WITH CHESTER This brochure aims to inform parents of the ways they can help their young child learn, grow, and prepare for school through everyday early literacy activities. Includes guidance on how to use library eresources to find interactive picture books!

Bilingual English/Spanish

Find resources and learn more at: firstfind.org/family-resources/help-your-child-learn-and-develop/early-literacy

MUSIC AND MEMORY AT THE LIBRARY Caring for a loved one who is experiencing memory loss can be a difficult and isolating time. The library system is here to help with loanable mp3 players and one-to-one support for building a personalized music playlist that can spur memories and connections. Incorporating music into daily care makes the heart sing!

Find resources and learn more at: seniors.westchesterlibraries.org/music-and-memory

 The image shows a brochure titled 'Online Learning Resources for All Ages' with the Spanish translation 'Recursos educativos en línea para todas las edades'. It features a profile of a woman with a colorful, abstract head design. The Westchester Library System logo is at the bottom.	ONLINE LEARNING RESOURCES FOR ALL AGES Our classic Online Learning Resources brochure has been updated to reflect our current digital offerings in a sleek, bilingual design. Aside from the usual learning resources like Tutor.com/Westchester, Tumblebooks, and LinkedIn Learning, this brochure includes information about using your library card to access educational documentaries, audiobooks, and more. Bilingual English/Spanish. Find resources and learn more at: westchesterlibraries.org/learn-online
 The image shows a brochure titled 'Open Doors HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY'. It features a smiling woman in a medical uniform. A circular badge says 'FREE RESOURCES firstfind.org'. The Westchester Library System logo is in the top right.	OPEN DOORS: HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY Not yet available in print The High School Equivalency guide, now titled Open Doors, serves as a companion to our FirstFind.org site, walking readers through the pathways and steps required to earn a high school equivalency diploma. NOTE: New version coming in May that reflects the shift from TASC to GED. Available in English (Spanish translation coming with “GED” edition) Find resources and learn more at: firstfind.org/adult-education
 The image shows a palm card titled 'Are you an adult who wants to read better?' with an illustration of books and a person reading. The 'Read Better' logo is at the bottom.	READ BETTER PALM CARD This tiny, simple palm card directs adult learners to contact the library system if they are interested in working with a free, private tutor online or at their local library. Contact information on the flip-side. Find resources and learn more at: firstfind.org/read-better
 The image shows a bookmark titled 'SENIOR LAW DAY COLLABORATIVE'. It lists 'We offer FREE Consultations, Educational Programs, Resources, Referrals'. It also mentions '22nd Edition of Elder Law Q&A available at seniorlawday.info'.	SENIOR LAW DAY BOOKMARK This simple, large print bookmark lists the four major offerings from the Senior Law Day Collaborative: Consultations, Educational Programs, Resources, and Referrals. SLD continues to offer these services through online and in person events. Bilingual English/Spanish Find resources and learn more at: seniorlawday.info

Spanish version available

SLOW BREATHING CALMS THE MIND Our newest “z card” brochure introduces readers to the simple breathing exercises that make up the backbone of our larger Westchester Breathes initiative- addressing trauma and resilience through science-based techniques.

With the dimensions of an index card when folded, this pocket card is easy to keep in a bag, desk drawer, car, etc.

Available in English or Spanish.

Find resources and learn more at:
conversations.westchesterlibraries.org/breathe

VISION LABS: READING FOR A LIFETIME This large print, bi-fold brochure highlights offerings and supports available to people experiencing vision loss - especially as it impacts older adults.

Featured resources include direct library services, the New York State Talking Book and Braille Library, and three crucial organizations that serve our community: VISIONS, Westchester Disabled on the Move, and the Westchester Council of the Blind.

Find resources and learn more at:
seniors.westchesterlibraries.org/visionlabs

WELCOME BACK BROCHURE & LIBRARY CARD HOLDER People returning to Westchester County after incarceration may need some extra help getting back on their feet, and who better to help than their local library! This brochure is intended for reentry service providers. The brochure describes library services and includes a card that can be activated by the provider.

Find resources and learn more at: connections.westchesterlibraries.org

WESTCHESTER LIBRARY SYSTEM This index card-sized fold-out describes the many support programs and services offered by Westchester Library System.

Programs mentioned: high school equivalency coaching, job search support and coaching, VisionLabs and senior benefits, re-entry guide.

Bilingual English/Spanish.

Find resources and learn more at:
westchesterlibraries.org/services-programs

WESTCHESTER REENTRY TASK FORCE RESOURCE GUIDE The Reentry Task Force resource guide is a mainstay of our information services to people who are currently incarcerated or otherwise involved in the justice system. Copies are frequently distributed locally to individuals, family members, or reentry service partners.

We also provide copies for the county jail and statewide correctional facilities by request.

Find resources and learn more at: connections.westchesterlibraries.org